NEWS

The last of the "Home coming" visitors left this morning.

Mrs. W. H. Kimball was in Morgan the forepart of the week.

Mrs. Alma Smith left for her home in Salt Lake this Friday morning.

Mrs. Joseph Allen and son Cliff, were in Morgan the forepart of the week.

Eugene Allen, of Provo, was in town in a large automobile during the week.

John Buchanan left Sunday for Cumberland, Wyo., where he will seek employment.

Miss Minnie Jensen of Ogden and Miss Winnie Smith of Salt Lake are the guests of Miss Gladys Beard.

Wilde & Wilde is the name of a new firm who have opened up a saloon in the England building during the week.

Mr. W. H. Bennett returned to Ogden Sunday after spending several days in this city. He enjoyed his stay here very much.

Work was begun Monday morning by J. H. Salmon, the contractor on the story brick building for E. Swanson, Sr. We will give more particulars next week. Watch Coalville grow.

A commercial club is being organized in this city. Already thirty members have been secured. It is thought that the club will be organized another week has gone.

and we will be able to give full details by them.

An election will be held at the Brick School house on Monday July 11th, 1910, for the purpose of electing one school trustee for the term of three years in School District No. 3. Polls will be open from 2:00 p. m. to 6:00 p. m., on above date.

A meeting will be held at the Brick School house on Monday, July 11th, 1910, at 2 o'clock p. m., for the purpose of hearing the school trustees' annual financial report for the school year ending June 30th, 1910, and to vote on the compensation of treasurer and clerk for the year ending June 30th, 1910.

The case of the State of Utah, vs. J. S. Salmon and Walter Calderwood for fishing out of season came up before Justice of the Peace Wm. Z. Terry this Friday morning, and on motion of County Attorney Peter Clark, the case was dismissed for want of sufficient evidence. No game warden or witnesses being present.

We forgot to mention the preliminaries in the Yokel-Harterson match last week. A three round boxing contest between Sam Wright and Grover Sommers was very good and was declared a draw. A wrestling match between Hirah Calderwood and a young fellow from Ogden lasted twenty minutes in which Calderwood had the better of the match all the way. George Wright acted as referee.

Mr. M. W. Windsor and Miss Zina Reddish, two popular and well known young people were married last evening, June 23rd, at the home of the bride, by Justice of the Peace S. J. Peterson. Only immediate relatives of the family being present. After the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Windsor left for Denver, Col., where they will spend their honeymoon. On their way east they will stop off at Biller, Wyo., and spend a few days with Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Stone. The Times hastens to extend to them congratulations, and may all their troubles be little ones.

Services Over Remains of James B. Staples

Funeral services over the remains of James B. Staples were held in the Cliff meeting house Sunday, June 19th. Bishop John T. Wilts presided.

Services opened by singing "Come Ye Disconsolate" under the direction of J. H. Barber. Prayer by ex-Bishop Edward Sawley. Singing "It is Well With My Soul." George Barber was the first speaker, followed by W. H. Branch. Next ex-Bishop Frank Croft spoke. Sole by Miss Mary A. Williams. Ex-Bishop Edward Sawley and Bishop John T. Wilts occupied the remainder of the services.

The deceased was born in the City of Ogden, June 19th, 1875.

At the adjourned session of the City council held on Monday, June 20th, the matter of the proper observance of "Independence Day" July 4th, was considered.

In view of the fact that the "Home Coming Day" celebration had been such a success as to add that the citizens and their friends had about satisfied themselves with pleasure and friendly greetings on that glorious occasion and had enjoyed themselves to the limit, and the time being so near between that event and July 4th, and many of the citi-cians desired to participate with the people of the surrounding towns in the celebration of the most glorious Fourth, the conclusion was reached that the day be observed by all citizens who intend to remain here by a manner appropriate to the occasion.

Final resolution—That the National colors be displayed by the citizens at their various places of residence and at Coal...

Weber Coal spells economy. Try a ton. It will do a ton's work. Do not take any chances this season in the matter of fuel. Coal that produces the greatest amount of heat; coal that burns to the last ounce; coal that is all coal, and the ash of which is evidence of its heat energy—that's the kind of coal we sell
